

Below is a list of Media which has either been backed up from CD or Digitised from Cassette Tape or VHS Video. These are held in the Rolling Stack at Oswestry Library.

Strange Meeting	Wilfred Owen was a Shropshire lad who struggled to get an education and then struggled to find a poetic voice. Sent to the battlefields of the First World War it was only when he painfully renounced his unquestioning jingoism that he produced his masterpieces. Russell Davies considers the achievements of Owen who was born 100 years ago.	Broadcast on Radio 4 on 19 March 1993. Producer David Perry and Kenneth Branagh reads Owens poems and letters.	Original was on Cassette Tape. 2 copies made to DVD – 1 held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group as a master copy
Wilfred Owen – A Remembrance Tale	Jeremy Paxman tells the tragic story of the renowned First World War poet who, at a time of jingoism and nationalist propaganda, described the brutal atrocities of war in shocking and poignant detail.	Broadcast on BBC2 on 11 November 2007 Director/Producer Louise Hooper. Wilfred Owen is played by Samuel Barnett	Original was a VHS Video 2 copies made to DVD – 1 held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group as a master copy
The New Gobowen Library	This shows the building and fitting out of the library in 2000	Gwyneth Morgan	Original was on VHS Video. The copy was in 2 parts - 3 copies made to DVD – 1 sent to Gobowen library & 1 held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group as a master copy

Borderline: Oswestry		Broadcast BBC Wales Today 24 April 1996	Original was a VHS Video 2 copies made to DVD – 1 held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group as a master copy.
Who's That Our Mam? – The Dovaston Book	Nesscliffe to Knockin Heath: Photo's, Families and Folklore compiled by Janet McKenzie		Original was on CD – 3 copies made to DVD - 1 held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group as a master copy
The Routes of English	Melvyn Bragg presents a series surveying 1,000 years of spoken English as reflected in the dialects of Britain. This is episode 5 Border Talk . The border town of Oswestry lies a few miles into Shropshire, to the east of Offa's Dyke – the ancient earthwork that traditionally divides Wales and England. Yet on market day Welsh is the talk in the sheep pens and local accents mix a Shropshire burr with the lilt of Welsh. Bragg travels to Oswestry to discover how 1,000 years of feuding and intermarriage have resulted in a fascinating linguistic union	Broadcast on Radio 4 on 21 December 2000 Producer Simon Elmes	Original was on Cassette Tape. 2 copies made to DVD – 1 held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group as a master copy
Miners' Memories – Branded with Humour	This CD was launched to commemorate Ifton Colliery in St. Martins near Oswestry. There are 40 tracks spoken by 16 miners or members of mining families, giving an account of the miners' lives until the closure of the pit in November 1968.	Made in September 2006 by Helen East, Llansilin heltell@hotmail.com	Original was on CD – 1 held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group as a master copy
Ellesmere Oral History	Recorded with members of the Age Concern Day Centre June 2004	Introduction Gladys Edwards, Nellie Jones & Kath Jones	Original was on CD – 2 copies made to DVD – 1 sent to Ellesmere - 1 held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group as a master copy

Ellesmere – A Sound Picture	Ellesmere Amateur Dramatic Society, Lakelands School & Ellesmere Primary School all took part. 2005	Recorded, edited & produced by the Dog Rose Trust of Ludlow.	Original was on CD – 2 copies made to DVD – 1 sent to Ellesmere - 1 held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group as a master copy
Maesbury School	Archive Project 2012	Produced by Colin Gregg	Original was on CD - 2 copies made to DVD – 1 held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group as a master copy
Memories on Film	Oswestry in 1930's. The contents were filmed by Stan Jones, Elwyn Roberts & members of the Hampton Movie Club which was founded in 1935.		Original was on CD - 2 copies made to DVD – 1 held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group as a master copy
Wartime & Post War Ellesmere	Copied from cine film in 1994 to video by Peter Sharman of Tyn-y_rhos Hall		Copied from VHS Video to DVD - 2 copies made to DVD – 1 sent to Ellesmere - 1 held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group as a master copy
Interviews with Cecil Corfield & Matthew Oliver	Llanymynech Lime Kilns & Crickheath Tram Road		Original was on Cassette Tape and copies were made to CD – master copy held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group
Evelyn Hatton	Playing organ music to raise money for Babbinswood Chapel – S-Star 14 May 2001		Original is still on Cassette Tape.
Oswestry in Wartime	John Powell collected old films of Oswestry in WW2 and put them on CD in 2005		DVD copied so we have a master
Oswestry Advertizer	Original Newspapers sent from Company every 3 months	Started 3 rd July 2012	Discs are held behind the counter at Oswestry Library. A master copy is held by Oswestry Family & Local History Group

Digitised Records Belonging to OF&LHG

St Philip & St John's Church, Morton, Nr Oswestry – Parish Records Marriages 1861-1990 Baptisms 1921-2003 Burials 1957-2013 Burials (Ashes) 1971-2013			Discs are held behind the counter at Oswestry Library. Copied by Oswestry Family & Local History Group who hold a master copy
St Agatha's Church, Llanymynech - Parish Records Marriages 1837-1961 Baptisms 1867-1969 Bns 1920-1965 Burials 1898-1950			Discs are held behind the counter at Oswestry Library. Copied by Oswestry Family & Local History Group who hold a master copy
Phillimore, Hereford Diocese & part of St. Asaph records to 1812 – part 1			Bought by Oswestry Family & Local History Group who hold a master copy
Phillimore, Lihfield Diocese & part of St. Asaph records to 1812 – part 2			Bought by Oswestry Family & Local History Group who hold a master copy